Having used this I like the layout, but the issues I have had (brush lag, no view manipulator, and that this was released with these issues.) make this software well not worth the price. After some more time in the QA department maybe but until then if you are looking for an improvement over 'comicado' look elsewhere.. I started playing this game like 7-8 years ago. Those were fun times because you had enough time to grind to level cap. But since they increased level cap and you get 0.01 from 7-8 mob it is torture to level at higher levels. Do not start this game unless they change the exp rates and item mall prices.. I really like it.. AAHHHAHAHAh ♥♥♥♥ING SHARK. Interesting but rather short game. Game aesthetics are distinct and gorgeous but gameplay and controls have some rough edges. Nevertheless game is well worth playing (even if you have no idea what "tulpa" is).. It's essentially a board game where you play four different minigames, but none of the minigames are very interesting or fun enough to really justify putting more than a few minutes into this. Also, it's an old game trying to pass itself off as being newer than it is, and it shows.

Boring, and honestly a waste of a pretty funny base concept.. Canyon Capers is a great little game.

Don't be fooled by the cute graphics, as this has some really good hardcore gaming, even with the super simple controls. You'll breeze through the early levels, and then it starts getting harder, or at least that's what I've found.

There's a good mix of achievements in here too... a few you'll get straight away, and some are way more skill based, that will take some time to earn.

I've given this a good couple of hours play now, and it's really got that 'one more go' thing, as the difficulty ramps up, and I'm going to be giving it a good few more at least. I'm finding I'm learning the levels, and pathing some fastest routes around them. It takes me back to when we used to make maps of levels as kids. I want 3 stars on every map.

I really hope the developers keep doing updates. There's a lot of promise in this one. It's great that indie's make games like this.

It's probably not for everybody, but if you like platformers... you'll love this one.

. The save issue has been fixed!

Enjoy this great simulation game and let's start create a beautiful Fireworks!!

I really like this simulator game, it's fun, but currently the save system in the game is bugged!

You might lost your progress just like how I lost my 5 hours progress.

I hope they get it fixed soon, until then play at your own risk.

Anyway, here's my piece

<http://steamcommunity.com/sharedfiles/filedetails/?id=347511023>. I wouldn't exactly give this game a thumb up, but on one hand... minimalist and beautiful visuals and astonishing speed make it worth your time. Especially since it only takes a couple of hours to finish.

On the other hand there are poor controls, which can ruin the game for you. So be aware and try it out if you dare (:

PS: be aware that the last level makes you enrage

So I bought this game to mock with friends, I'd read the reviews, I'd seen how bad it seemed to be, but I was unprepared for the true depths of how shoddy this is. As soon as you boot it up, it blasts obnoxious, low quality techno music at you, while you're faced with low quality Deviantart OCs. I probably should have heeded this warning, uninstalled it and gotten a refund, but I sadly only reached that point 72 minutes later. The art is not only bad, it's inconsistent, with characters constantly being off model, to the point where parts of their clothes would change color in between sentences in ways that can't be explained by shading, the characters are mostly unlikable, and the Abaddon Conglomerate has the most supervillain-esque name of any fictional company I've seen. I felt ashamed owning this game, and I added♥♥♥♥♥like Imouto Paradise to my Steam. Don't buy this game, and if you bought it, aim for a refund. If you can't get a refund, get it removed from your account. Gender Bender DNA Twister Extreme is an abomination of game design, and you should stay as far away as possible.. Cant adjust the view position, game also crashes after 5 mins. Refunded.. I love this game and I don't want it to stop. It's right up there with DDLC. okay so you shoot fish... where's the game though?

not complaining since I got it in a bundle with some other games that were kind of fun for about 0.07 each which is alright. in the grand sceme of things... I've paid more for games that wouldn't even start xD

Just felt I had to give honor where honor's due. I haven't seen a game that made so little effort in quite a while.... Amazing. I remember seeing this a really long time ago. im really gald I they brought this to steam. this is a fun game. trust me you'll like it unless you're not good at puzzles.
